Mr. [] came in on 25 October. I was very favorably impressed by him and discussed with him some of the elements of his background and schooling. Mr. [] of Personnel took him over for a more detailed interview.

Personnel considers him of no value; did not register impressively
on tests.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

Mr. Dulles told me before he left that I would be hearing from you and that you might be able to come in to see us. I should like insofar as possible to meet your preferences as to a weekend without unduly delaying our interview. I find, however, that Saturday, October 25, appears to be the first opportunity we would have for a Saturday appointment. If that is satisfactory, I should be delighted to see you sometime that morning. Perhaps you would be good enough to let me know the hour which would best correspond to the travel arrangements which you will have to make.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. [redacted]

As you may know I am very interested in associating myself with your organization.
Consequently, at the suggestion of Mr.
Arch Dallas and Mr. [redacted]

I would like to arrange an interview with you in order to discuss the possibilities of this more.

Would you be kind enough to let me know when I might conveniently see you? At present I am with the Radio Corporation of America so a week end would be preferable. However I could arrange my time to suit
you during the week if you wish.

I shall look forward to hearing
from you.

Sincerely yours
